

Social stratification refers to structured inequality in society, where groups are ranked based on wealth, power & other factors.

According to Max Weber -

Societies are vertically arranged, people are placed in different layers based on class, status.

For arranging, his approach was

Status -
Class - } Economically & Social

Party - Political

- He argued that status is not automatically map to class but is combination of class, social dimension Political power and Economical status.

Agent / Power Brokers - person who influences people to vote towards a particular client in exchange of financial/political powers

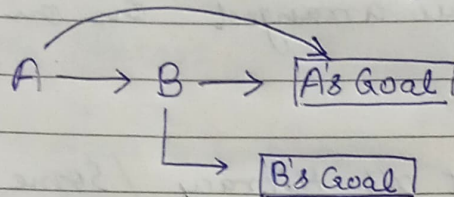

- * Agent doesn't have direct powers. they have power by virtue of Access to imp person, Economic powers or Political power.

Caste } Fundamental Hierarchy
class } in Indian Systems

Not all divisions are hierarchy but some are definitely

Max Weber's View on Power & Authority -

Power. Acc. to him power is ability to make someone do something against his will.

One can make someone to do by Money Power - Offer him financial support/money.

Muscle Power - threatening someone

Blackmail - Emotionally blackmailing

Authority - Authority is power that is legitimate means it is accepted by people by virtue of rules & regulation or by structure.

ex. Younger need to follow older people in family because it's structure.

Types of Authority -

Weber suggested three types of authority -

1. Rational Legal (Bureaucratic)

→ Based on Selection process, Rules & regulations.

→ Power lies in the position not in individual

Ex. Director, IAS, faculty.

'Chair has power not the person sitting on it'

2. Traditional - → Based on customs, traditional or hereditary rule.
 → legitimated through traditional structure.
Ex. Kings, Patriatic power.

3. Charismatic - → Based on Charisma (Magic/Aura)
 → Due to personal qualities & abilities.
Ex. Gandhi, Sports person like Virat, Dhoni.

→ Many companies endorse their products by sports person bcoz they have charismatic authorities and can attract a large no. of persons.

Combined form

When person having More than one authority.

Ex. Actor having charisma participate in elections to gain bureaucratic authorities. and mostly win due to their charisma (well known by people).
 Charisma transitioning into Rational-legal

In context of 'Chakke wali Kushi'

Chair is used as metaphor of power
Social dimension

- { Pradhan/Sachiv — Rational legal Although pradhan's wife was main but due to patriarchal power he was having power.
- { Bride Groom — Traditional power authority

Authorities/Power is shown by inequalities

- 5 mithai for bride givers and 7 for bride takers
(gharati & barati)
- Sachiv's 'chakke wali Kushi' made difference in pradhan's & Sachiv powers. So pradhan should have that
- ~~Pr~~ Sachiv's office used for stay.
- females not shown. (patriarchal power)